Please email us to let us know at It connotes a transcendence of fad and fashion. "I did archery when I was in high school. You can't be tense. "My dad keeps referring to me playing the piano when he's trying to teach me something in archery."— Miranda Leek.Philosophical Archery QuotesSome great philosophical quotes coming from famous people like Maurice Thompson and Thomas Fuller.24. For information about clubs round the country, visit Archery GB (archerygb.org) The word Archery is derived from the Latin word 'arcus' which means bow.Archery historically has been used as a means for hunting and combat. But they are all, I notice, using sights. Archery was best known to be used during medieval times as a means to wage war from a distance. "I shoot an arrow into the air, where it lands I do not care: I get my arrows wholesale!"— Curly Howard.20. Inspire yourself with these great bow and arrow sayings that help you in figuring things out about archery.46. Some new signups for the course may have been inspired by Game of Thrones, but archery appears to have a longer-term appeal than that. I only hope these are enough to withstand this awful trial."— Stieg Hedlund.11. "Archery, with its instinctive arrows and targets, divides into subdomains. "The archer sees the make upon the path of the infinite, and He bends you with His might that His arrows may go swift and far."— Kahili Gibran.44. Perhaps it speaks to the caveman in all of us, but it certainly twangs the strings of childhood nostalgia, whether knights or cowboys and Indians.It's one of those rare sports that almost anyone can do, from age 10 upwards, and it's a compelling sport for those in wheelchairs too.After a few rounds, I begin to settle into a calm, almost meditative process of self-awareness to check that my body is in position for the shot. The centre of the target is exactly the same size as a man's head, Marcus Allen tells me. I stand sideways to the target, relax my shoulders, fit the arrow on to the bow and then raise it. That's why I have to have apartments with gardens."— Paulo Coelho.19. "The history of the bow and arrow is the history of mankind."— Fred Bear.'Zen In The Art Of Archery' QuotesBest Archery sayings and quotes along with some great comments from the book 'Zen In The Art Of Archery' by Eugen Herrigel published in 1948.52. "I taught him archery every day, and when he got good at it he threw an arrow at me."— Arabic Proverb.32. Descending, he drinks the ritual cup."— Confucius.Bow And Arrow QuotesArchery Bows are of four types: Recurve, Longbow, Compound, and Crossbow. 'Archerss' has been used to address female archers, but nowadays the preferred term is simply 'archer'. When you're in archery, you can't try to force it step-by-step-by-step. "I do love archery in my day-to-day life because I find it very therapeutic, and I've trained every season with the bow and arrow."— Rose Leslie.51. For our last few rounds, we start scoring – at which point I have to battle to suppress a feisty competitiveness as I'm shooting with some very able male archers. "How far the pupil will go is not the concern of the teacher and Master. "The right shot at the right moment does not come because you do not let go of yourself. It is perhaps similar to golf, but of course there are more golf courses than archery fields."— Im Dong-Hyun.17. "It concerns us to know the purposes we seek in life, for then, like archers aiming at a definite mark, we shall be more likely to attain what we want."— Aristotle.30. "The more obstinately you try to learn how to shoot the arrow for the sake of hitting the goal, the less you will succeed in the one and the further the other will recede."— Eugen Herrigel.27. Unless you have a death wish of course: one of my wayward arrows penetrated 7.5cm into the solid wood stand.We spend a large part of every session being shown how to stand and how to hold the bow itself. "The superior man has nothing to compete for. And that just helps, in your day-to-day life."— Stephen Amell.2. "So long as the new moon returns in heaven a bent, beautiful bow, so long will the fascination of archery keep hold in the hearts of men."— Maurice Thompson, 'The Witchery Of Archery'.3. Let's do this!The first of our four weekend sessions is necessarily slow as we learn the rules of play: wait for the whistle before advancing to the shooting line, and don't start heading to collect your arrows from the boss - the target - until the "end" has finished. Then the shot doesn't flow and it's not a good shot. I'm a stealth Amazon, I tell myself. In our gym class, we had two weeks of archery, and I remember taking the bow and arrow and firing it up and across the street into a car parking lot."— John Barrowman.47. "The archer that shoots badly has a lie ready."— Spanish Proverb.43. "Archery is still a matter of life and death to the extent that it is a contest of the archer with himself."— Eugen Herrigel,'Zen In The Art Of Archery'.58. We are starting with learner-level recurve bows of 20-30 pounds (about 9-14kg - archery is still strictly imperial), but muscle-bound archers can pull up to 70 pounds - about the same weight as an average 10-year-old girl. "I have been practicing archery for a long time, a bow and arrow helps me to unwind."— Paulo Coelho.50. Archeryingo!End a round of arrows!Fast! an emergency call that means everyone must stop shootingRelease/loose firing the arrow from the bow!Fletching the stabilising flights on an arrowNock the notch at the end of an arrow that allows it click on to the stringTo find out more about the Plumpton Bowmen archery club, based in Plumpton Green, East Sussex, visit plumpton-bowmen.org.uk. Once you have learned the technique, the point is to re-create the perfect technique over and over and over."— Geena Davis.6. "Archery was just something that we did as a father/daughter activity, and it just kind of grew out of that, really."— Miranda Leek.7. "In piano, if you try to force hitting this key and that key, it's very broken. "A good archer is known not by his arrows but by his aim."— Thomas Fuller.25. And when everything is together, I let go, my hand pulling back to rest on my shoulder after the shot. And then I get to do it all again.By the time of my final session, I've settled into this process, but ruled out using a sight - this is the crosshairs viewer fixed on to the bow, which allows you to focus more clearly (most of the group preferred it, but I found it a distraction). "Archery is not a sport for everyone. I wouldn't like to cross him.Marcus is one of a small, dedicated archery group called The Plumpton Bowmen, who meet at least once a week throughout the year. How you get that kind of power or ability is only through right practice."— Shunryu Suzuki.49. When the archer misses the center of the target, he turns around and seeks for the cause of his failure in himself."— Confucius.5. "The main thing about archery is a battle with yourself. Archery has featured in Hollywood blockbusters such as 'The Lord Of The Rings' trilogy, 'The Hunger Games', and 'Avengers', it has also been a part of the small screen with shows like 'Arrow' starring Stephen Amell.Feel free to share these quotes with your friends and family! "Wabi means spare, impoverished; simple and functional. Thus, competitive archery differs importantly from archery hunting."— Ernest Sosa, 'SAM Magazine'.4. If you just let the performance flow, it's really beautiful."— Miranda Leek.8. "Nothing clears a troubled mind better than shooting a bow."— Fred Bear.9. "If you would will the mark at long range, you must aim a little above it: every arrow that flies feels the pull of the earth."— Henry Wadsworth Longfellow.10. "The only thing that relaxes me is archery. "Fundamentally the marksman aims at himself."— D.T. Suzuki.34. "The right art is purposeless, aimless! The more obstinately you try to learn how to shoot the arrow for the sake of hitting the goal, the less you will succeed in the one and the further the other will recede."— D.T. Suzuki.37. "If you understand the point of practice, then even without a bow and arrow the archery will help you. Once you have learned the technique, the point is to recreate the perfect technique over and over and over."— Geena Davis.18. "The shot will only go smoothly when it takes the archer himself by surprise."— Eugen Herrigel,'Zen In The Art Of Archery'.53. "The main concept about archery is a battle with yourself. Elott.12. "An arrow is never afraid of shooting from the bow; but it is afraid of not reaching the target!"— Mehmet Murat Ildan.33. "The archer is the true weapon; the bow is just a long piece of wood."— Sebastien de Castell, 'Traitor's Blade'.26. You think that what you do not do yourself does not happen."— Eugen Herrigel,'Zen In The Art Of Archery'.54. "But you must be patient and careful; nor should you expect to become an accomplished archer without long and severe training."— Maurice Thompson, 'The Witchery Of Archery'.28. Put the thought of hitting right out of your mind!"— Eugen Herrigel,'Zen In The Art Of Archery'.55. There is no difference as to his skill."— Zhuangzi.16. With the invention of firearms, things like bows soon lost all their purposes, and Archers had to switch to firearms.Archery requires precision skills as well as focus, repetition, and determination. First, to handle a bow with any kind of power in it, I need to be able to draw the string back quite some way. "There is no excellence in archery without great labor."— Maurice Thompson.14. "No person learned the art of archery from me, who did not, in the end, make me his position."— Saadi Shirazi.35. "In competitive archery, risk assessment has minimal bearing on quality of performance, since the archer has so little choice over shot selection. It's a complete release from the rest of the world. "Other archers are not my competition. But if he must compete, he loses it in an archery match, wherein he ascends to his position, bowing in deference. Unless your name is Katniss."— Andrea Portes.48. I stand with them, not against them."— Unknown*.36. "In the long run, you only hit what you aim at."— Henry Thoreau.45. "In archery, we have something like the way of the superior man. The oldest known proof of archery is dated to be around 60,000 to 70,000 years ago found on the South African site of Sibudu Caves. It's not pretty. Before I shoot, I check my hand isn't gripping the bow too tightly (this can actually make the shot less steady), with my thumb and forefinger just meeting around the bow and the rest of my fingers at 45 degrees. The satisfying thud of the arrow as it lands on target - on the bulls-eye even - is like nothing else." Photograph: Will Whipple/GuardianWhat I feel, in those moments of lining up a shot, is an absolute focus on the here and now. I had little experience of archery at the start of my course, other than with a rubbish plastic bow as a child, but I'm quietly confident that I have decent hand-eye coordination and a good aim. "Archery is something that I took up later and didn't know I had a natural aptitude for."— Geena Davis.22. Where it lands, paint a bulls-eye."— Elizabeth Streb.40. "Archery does not get difficult or hard to understand until the arrow misses."— Milan E. One of the teachers for my four-session basic training course, Marcus is a mild-mannered university lecturer during the week but, at the weekends, he likes to play at being a potentially lethal marksman with his impressive and very technical compound bow. I levelled up to a 35-pound bow that meant I could attack a 30-yard (27 metres) target; not quite the 100 yards of the mens' competition, but progress. "You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth."— Kahili Gibran.31. When the stakes are belt buckles he becomes hesitant, and if the stakes are pure gold he becomes nervous and confused. Hardly has he shown him the right way when he must let him go on alone."— Eugen Herrigel,'Zen In The Art Of Archery'.57. "If you would hit the mark, you must aim a little above it."— Henry Wadsworth Longfellow,'Elegiac Verse'.38. It has served as a past time activity in developed as well as developing countries all across the world. The satisfying thud of the arrow as it lands on target - on the bulls-eye even - is like nothing else. In modern times, it is mostly a competitive sport and recreational activity affordable for everyone.Archery is an art and sport that uses the skill of shooting arrows using bows. "What stands in your way is that you have a much too willful will."With archery, if you have good gear, you can't blame being bad on anyone but yourself."— Brad Leone.21. There is a lot of standing around, but part of the appeal of archery is this delightfully calm rhythm, and there's a lot of time to drink tea, talk through how you could improve and enjoy the view of the South Downs.'Before I shoot, I check my hand isn't gripping the bow too tightly as this can make the shot less steady." Photograph: Will Whipple/GuardianThe sport itself, while not being the most athletic, has a charm and an exquisite ritual all of itself. "In an archery contest, when the stakes are earthenware tiles a contestant shoots with skill. "The way to write is to throw your body at the mark when all your arrows are spent."— Ralph Waldo Emerson.29. So by that reckoning, I tell myself, I've won. The spirit of wabi imbues all the Zen arts, from calligraphy to karate, from the tea ceremony to Zen archery."— Shunryu Suzuki.39. I mean, it seems like a fairly limited field of expertise and usefulness. "You worry yourself unnecessarily. "Aim at the sun, and you may not reach it, but your arrow will fly far higher than if aimed at an object on a level with yourself."— Joel Hawes.42. He has clearly been bitten by the archery bug and is enormously informative, adding that sometimes he likes to go off and shoot foam velociraptors in a wood. This is far harder than I'd imagined. "Our ancestors used the bow for a double purpose: in the time war, it was a dreadful instrument of destruction; and in peace, it became an object of amusement."— Joseph Strutt.23. "Archery requires very sensitive muscles."— Im Dong-Hyun.13. "Our mental discipline is matched only by our skill in archery..."I'm not sure why anyone on the face of the planet would want to use a bow and arrow. "In the case of archery, the hitter and the hit are no longer two opposing objects, but are one reality."— Eugen Herrigel,'Zen In The Art Of Archery'.Here at Kidad, we have carefully created lots of interesting family-friendly quotes for everyone to enjoy! If you liked our suggestions for archery quotes that hit the target, then why not take a look at Treebeard quotes, or Tyrion Lannister quotes? *Do you know where this quote originated? You do not wait for fulfillment, but brace yourself for failure."— Eugen Herrigel,'Zen In The Art Of Archery'.56. "It's basic research: shoot an arrow in the air. You can ruin it all. The equipment costs a lot, and it is not easy for everyone to find a place to play. There are 20,000-year-old cave paintings in Spain depicting hunters with bows and arrows, Marcus tells me. "You have to relax when you're shooting an arrow. By contrast, in a hunt, shots vary in quality according to how well selected they may be."— Ernest Sosa.15. "If you don't have a target to aim for you are going to miss it anyway."— Clifford Aqa.41.
